As a matter of fact, there was but one ques-tion before the Court of Appeals, and that was decided favorably to the younger and the incor-The prayer of a cross-bill filed by the older body in the suit in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia asked that the junior and incorporated body be enjoined from holding themselves out as Free Masons and from practicing the principles of Free Masons. The Supreme Court granted this prayer, from which an appeal was taken to the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. The Court of Appeals reversed the decision of the lower court. DISMISSED THE INJUNCTION and thus left the junior and incorporated body free to practice the principles of Free Masonry unmolested or restrained. If this was not a victory for the junior and incorporated body, what was it? The Court of Appeals did not recognize the older body as a lodge of Masonry, but merely classed them as a volunteer association.

My Uncle Toby graced the page
Of an unscientific age;
He did not understand, as I.
His duty was to swat the fly.
The world is wide; a flat is not;
And that is why I swat and swat.
I swat them hither, swat them yon,
I swat them ever and anon;
I swat and swat from sun to sun,
And still the work is never done.

This bit of verse may well be said to express the sentiment and probably at least portion of the daily activities of most Washingtonians during the summer season, for there are few humans in this statistics to show the money value of the time lost by the human race in pursuing
